ELIGIBILITY: Child/children or legally adopted child/children or a child of a spouse by a prior marriage or dependent child as defined by the United States Armed Services for active duty personnel of the United States military and National Guard, and military reservists who were federalized and die on active duty on or after September 11, 2001. Must be a high school senior or high school graduate to apply for the scholarship. Directions for completing this application: Application must be typed. Do not attach any documents or additional pages to this application, except as required, all other documentation or added pages will be discarded.

Completing a scholarship application can be a difficult task. Below are some tips to help you complete your application.

1. Application must be typed. Scroll over the "Programs" headline at the top of the page, and in the drop-down box, click on "Scholarships". The American Legion Legacy Scholarship renewal application can be found on this page.
2. Do not attach any documents or additional pages to the application, except as required.
3. Review the entire application before completing it. If a field is left blank, it will count against you. If you cannot answer a question, put a reason in the field.
4. Proofread your answers/essays in this application in addition to having at least one other person proofread your application. Incomplete applications will be returned for corrections.
5. Use a computer to prepare your final document. Applications will be returned for corrections if they are handwritten.
6. Each application is judged on its own merit so include any information that makes you exceptional and a good candidate to receive the award.
7. Keep a copy of everything you submit!
8. Pay close attention to scholarship application deadlines as applications submitted past the deadline will not be considered. The application must be postmarked no later than April 1.

Applications due April 1, 2016

The Rules and Conditions under which the scholarships are awarded and the program administered shall be:

1. Those eligible to apply for the scholarship shall be the child/children or legally adopted child/children or a child of a spouse by a prior marriage or dependent child as defined by the United States Armed Services for active duty personnel of the United States military and National Guard, and military reservists who were federalized and die on active duty on or after September 11, 2001.
2. Must be a high school senior or high school graduate to apply for the scholarship.
3. The American Legion American Legacy Scholarship is for undergraduate study at an accredited institution of higher education within the United States, except where the recipient is from a possession of the United States, in which case he/she can select a university or college in that possession or in the United States. The recipient must be accepted or enrolled as a full-time student to receive his/her scholarship funds. The number and amount of the scholarship awards will be determined by the income derived from The American Legion September 11 Memorial Scholarship Trust.
4. The scholarship funds may only be used to defray necessary costs of the student's education (i.e. tuition, room & board, books & supplies, fees and equipment required by the student's particular course of study or school).
5. The scholarship recipient may reapply for the scholarship annually. The amount of the fund request cannot exceed the cost of education. Students may make only one (1) request for funds per semester or quarter.
6. Scholarship checks will be issued upon receipt of a "Request for Funds" form. It is the normal and customary procedure that the scholarship check will be a two-party check made payable to the student and school.
